Sounds

Practise reading these words:

move

prove

improve

Past or present tense?

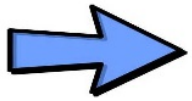

I walked all the way to the park and I was very tired.

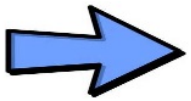

I am singing my favourite song while I tidy my room.

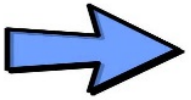

Th girl is sitting on the playground, watching her friends. Unfortunately, she can't join in their playing because she hurt her knee. She can see two boys racing enthusiasticly, running rings around the playground. She can hear someone making a noise as if they are hurt but it is just a girl who can't sing. She tries standing up and realises her knee is feeling a little better. She decides to try walking around the playground. Her friends come over, seeing if she needs any help. Now her friends are helping her, she is feeling happier.

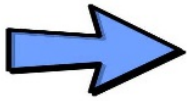

Is this past or present tense? How do you know? What suffix helps us work it out? Why is that sound in other words?

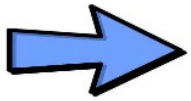

Change this verbs to verbs to verbs with the suffix 'ing'.

sing

walk

fling

hunt

jump

Sounds

Practise reading these words and then practise writing them without looking...

move

prove

improve

Adding 'ing' to a verb...

hop --> hopping

grab --> grabbing

chop --> chopping

Can you work out the rule?

Adding 'ing' to a verb...

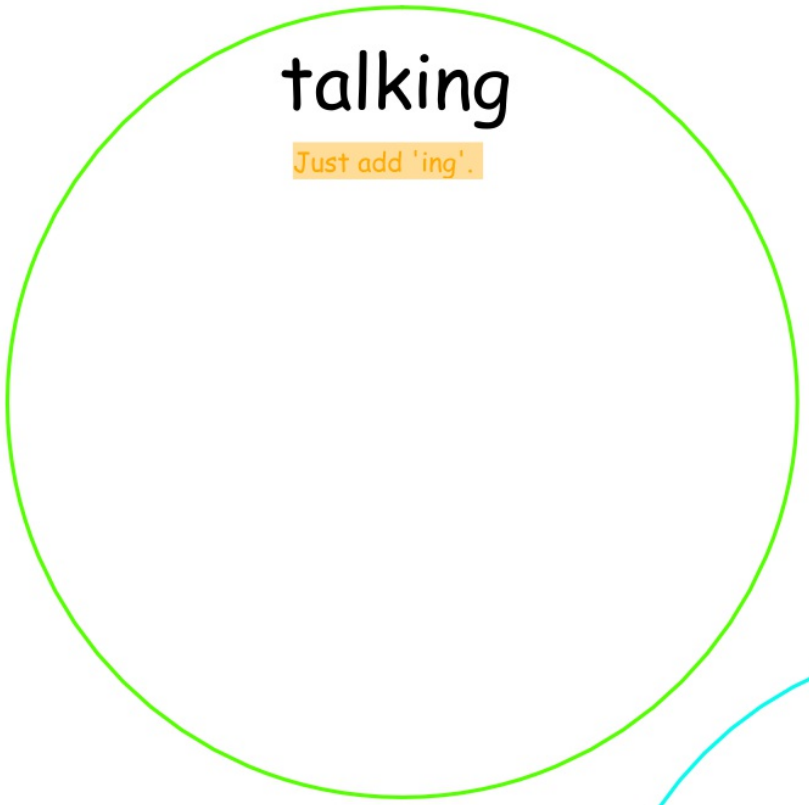

hope --> hoping

grate --> grating

like --> liking

Can you work out the rule?

Can you think of some more 'ing' verbs for each rule?

Sounds

Practise reading these words:

sure

sugar

Verb stays the same add 'ing'	Drop the 'e' and add 'ing
Ask someone to say a verb ending in 'ing'. Can you write it in the correct column? Let's see which column fills up quickest...

Ask someone to read some sentences for you to write without looking.

I am drawing and colouring a picture of a singing monkey.
He is running around the playground while the dog is sitting and waiting.

Can you use a coloured pencil to underline the words that show us these sentences are past tense?

Sounds

Practise reading these words and then practise writing them without looking:

sure

sugar

Rules for adding 'ing'

If a one-syllable verb ends in a vowel followed by a consonant, double the consonant before adding 'ing'.

chop --> chopping

When the verb ends in 'e' drop the 'e' before adding 'ing'.

hope --> hoping

Other words you can just add 'ing'.

float --> floating

Example (how to use a phoneme frame)...

p	l	ay	i	ng

We can write these words on phoneme frames to help us break down the sounds.

playing
jumping
annoying
trying hurrying
living
staring
nodding

Remember each box is for a sound so a digraph will go in one box and a trigraph will go in one box.

Example (how to use a phoneme frame)...

a	n	n	oy	i	ng

We can write these words on phoneme frames to help us break down the sounds.

playing
jumping
annoying
trying
hurrying
living
staring
nodding

Remember each box is for a sound so a digraph will go in one box and a trigraph will go in one box.

Draw a phoneme frame. Ask someone to read the words for you to write on your phoneme frame without looking.

playing
jumping
annoying
trying
hurrying
living
staring
nodding

Remember each box is for a sound so a digraph will go in one box and a trigraph will go in one box.