Monday's sound of the Day is:

ie

In words such as pie, tie and lie.

Tricky Words to Read

there

their

where

were

Can you sound out and read these words?

pie

tie

cried

hide

bride

stride

Ask a grown up to read each of the words. Can you write them in your book?

tie, lie, pie, bride, stride, cried.

Ask a grown up to read the sentence. Can you write it in your book?

I like to play hide and seek.

Tuesday's sound of the Day is:

ie

Today we are looking at the alternate pronunciation which makes the 'ee' sound. In words such as priest, chief, thief.

Tricky Words to Read

her

here

his

him

Can you sound out and read these words?

priest
field
thief
chief
grief
relief

Ask a grown up to read each of the words. Can you write them in your book?

Priest, thief, field, grief, relief, chief.

Ask a grown up to read the sentence. Can you write it in your book?

The thief ran away to the field.

Wednesday's sound of the Day is:

ea

In words such as eat, meat, cheat.

Tricky Words to Read

Mr

Mrs

push

pull

Can you sound out and read these words?

eat

meat

cheat

beak

dream

heater

Ask a grown up to read each of the words. Can you write them in your book?

Eat, meat, cheat, beak, please, dream, heater.

Ask a grown up to read the sentence. Can you write it in your book?

Please can I read a book?

Thursday's sound of the Day is:

ea

Today we are looking at the alternate pronunciation which makes the 'e' sound. In words such as head, bread, read.

Tricky Words to Read

come

some

you

your

Can you sound out and read these words?

read
bread
breakfast
weather
spread
heavy

Ask a grown up to read each of the words. Can you write them in your book?

Bread, read, spread, weather, heavy, breakfast

Ask a grown up to read the sentence. Can you write it in your book?

I like to spread butter on my breakfast.

Friday's lesson is a recap. Can you read these words?

bread

pie

feast

priest

cried

weather

Now click the link and play the phonics games.

https://www.topmarks.co.uk/english-games/5-7-years/letters-and-sounds