Monday LO: to think of adjectives.

Have a look at the pictures of different towns. Can you think of adjectives to describe what they are like.
Think about what you can see.
Think about what you can hear.

Town

loud

Challenge: Can you use the adjectives that you have thought of to write sentences to describe a town.

Tuesday LO: to think of adjectives.

Have a look at the pictures of the countryside.
Can you think of adjectives to describe what it is like.
Think about what you can see.
Think about what you can hear.

country

green grass

Challenge: Can you use the adjectives that you have thought of to write sentences to describe the countryside.

Wednesday LO: to use the suffixes 'er' and 'est'

Today we are going to look at the suffixes er and est.
We add a suffix to the end of the word.
We use the suffixes er and est to compare.

The town is louder than the country.
The town is the loudest.
The country is quieter than the town.
The country is the quietest.

Wednesday LO: to use the suffixes 'er' and 'est'

Can you think of words that end in 'er' or 'est' to compare the town to the countryside.

louder biggest

Can you think of words that end in 'er' or 'est' to compare the countryside to the town.

quieter
greenest

Help for parents, ideas of words:
Busier, busiest, louder, loudest, taller, tallest, noisier, noisiest, greener, greenest, quieter, quietest, calmer, calmest, windier, windiest, tidier, tidiest, cleaner, cleanest.

Thursday LO: to use the suffixes 'er' and 'est'

Today you are going to use words containing the suffixes 'er' and 'est' to write sentences comparing the town and the countryside.

Choose 3 of these words and write 3 sentences comparing the town and the countryside. Underline the word containing the suffix.

greener, quietest, loudest, noisiest, calmer, cleaner

The countryside is quieter than the town.
The town is louder than the countryside.

Challenge: Can you think of two sentences using your own words containing the er or est suffixes.

Friday Handwriting

Look! There is a grey mouse.
He lives in the house.
He is happy, fat and glad.
Brown mouse comes in.
He does spin.
Now grey mouse looks sad.

