LO: to use punctuation correctly.

Put the correct punctuation at the end of these sentences. One sentence is a statement so you will need to finish it with a full stop. There is also an exclamation sentence ! and a question ?. Remember an exclamation sentence starts with what or how but it's not a question as it doesn't need an answer.

What a beautiful blue dress Cinderella wore

Where does the girl live who owns this glass slipper

The handsome prince searched everywhere until he found Cinderella

Task

1. Read the story of Cinderella from yesterday.

2. Read the sentences that you put in the correct order.

3. Write the rest of the story. Make sure you remember your capital letters and full stops. Can you use at least one exclamation sentence and one question?

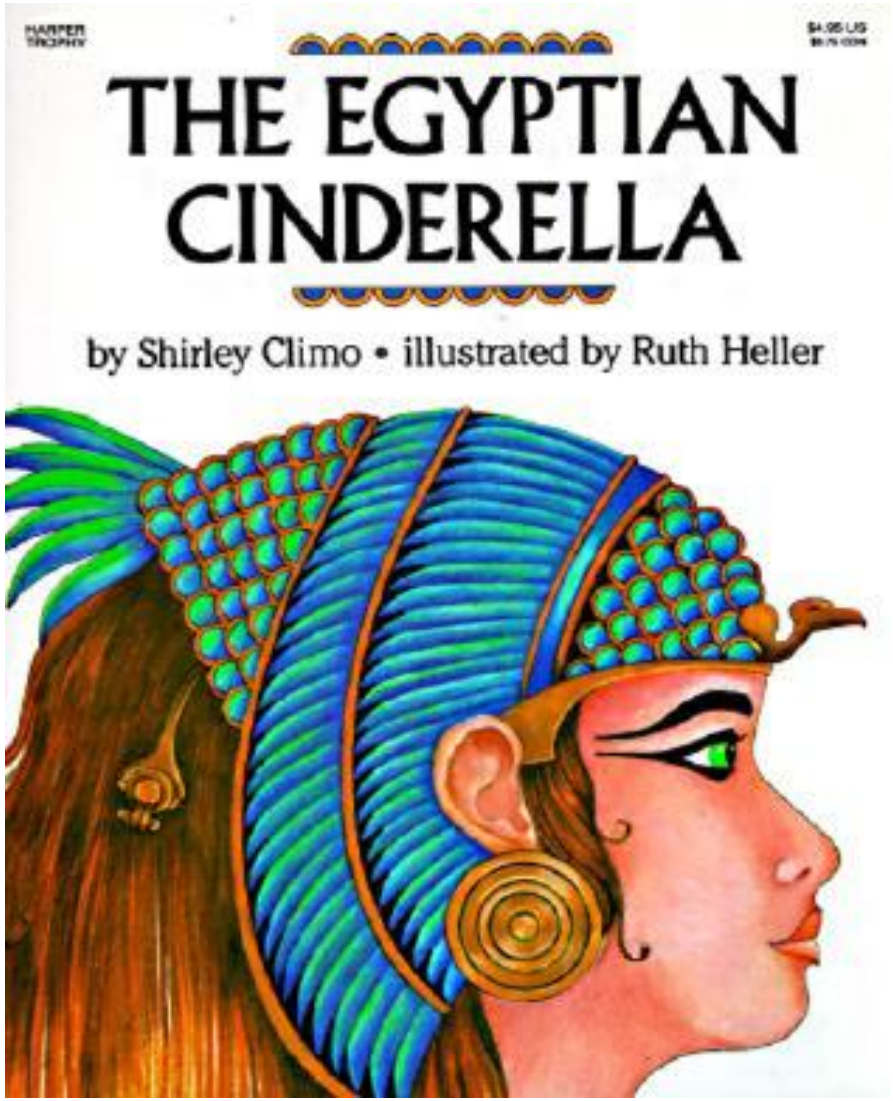

Wednesday 13th January 2021

Handwriting:

Copy the sentence below to practise your handwriting and ake your letters the correct size.

Cinderella is a story for children and it is a fairy tale.

LO: to write questions

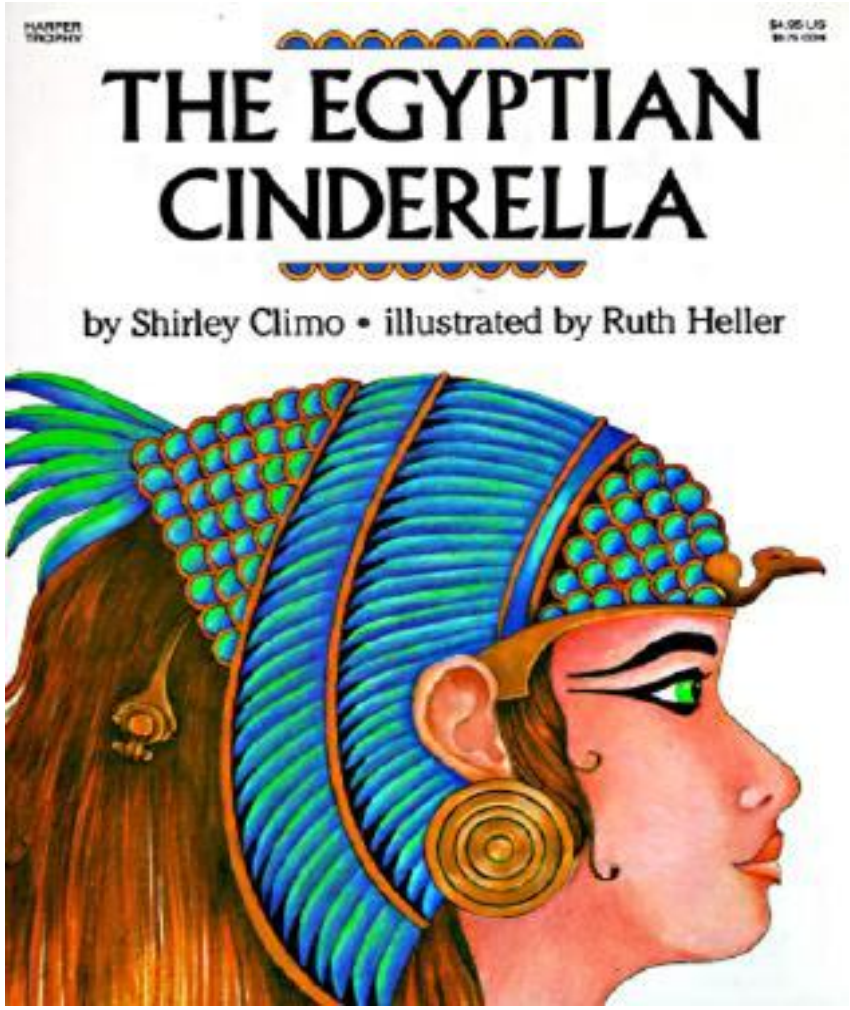

Look at the front cover and discuss:
What type of text is it?
How do you know?
What is the title of the text?
What do you notice about the title?
Who is the author?
Who is the illustrator?
Where do you think the text is set?
Who are the characters?

Explain to the children that they are going to write questions by looking at the front cover that they would hope to find the answer to when they read the text. Generate a list of question words together on the interactive whiteboard: who, what, where, when, how, why etc

An example of a question could be:

Who is the girl?
