Practise reading these tricky words:

most

only

both

old

Monday

Monday

What are vowel sounds?

All sounds are split into two groups:
vowel sounds and consonant sounds.

Which letters are vowels?

a e i o u

Which sounds are vowels?

If a digraph contains one or more vowels then it is a vowel sound.
Here are some examples, but this is not all of them.

ai ay a_e ey ee e_e igh ie oa o_e ue

ar or

Monday

Some vowel sounds are long and some are short.

Read these words and listen to the vowel sound.
Does it sound long or short?

shot

cube

cat

far

cone

name

hole

Monday

Long vowel sound	Short vowel sound

Read the words. Can you tell your adult whether you think they have a long vowel sound?

star	stunt
play	dark
mean	date
lit	light
soft	count

Practise reading these tricky words THEN cover them and practise writing them:

most

only

both

old

Tuesday

Adding 'ed' to a verb...

walk --> walked

jump --> jumped

wait --> waited

Tuesday

Adding 'ed' to a verb...

hop --> hopped

grab --> grabbed

chop --> chopped

If a one-syllable verb ends in a vowel followed by a consonant, double the consonant before adding 'ed'

Tuesday

Adding 'ed' to a verb...

hope --> hoped

grate --> grated

like --> liked

When the verb ends in 'e' you only need to add 'd'.

Tuesday

Adding 'ed' to a verb...

cry --> cried

scurry --> scurried

hurry --> hurried

If the verb ends in a consonant and a 'y',
change the 'y' into and 'i' before adding 'ed'.

Tuesday

Adding 'ed' to a verb...

play --> played

spray --> sprayed

annoy --> annoyed

If the verb ends in a consonant and a 'y',
change the 'y' into and 'i' before adding 'ed'.

Tuesday

verb stays the same add 'ed'	just add 'd'	replace 'y' with an 'i' add 'ed'

Which rule do you think applies to these words?

bake
walk scurry

Can you write the past tense versions of these words in your book?

Tuesday

Practise reading these tricky words:

old

cold

told hold

gold

Wednesday

Recap:

What are vowel sounds?

All sounds are split into two groups:
vowel sounds and consonant sounds.

Which letters are vowels?

a e i o u

Which sounds are vowels?

If a digraph contains one or more vowels then it is a vowel sound.
Here are some examples, but this is not all of them.

ai ay a_e ey ee e_e igh ie oa o_e ue
ar or

Wednesday

Rules for adding 'ed'

Remember:

If a one-syllable verb ends in a vowel followed by a consonant, double the consonant before adding 'ed'

chop --> chopped

When the verb ends in 'e' you only need to add 'd'.

hope --> hoped

If the verb ends in a consonant and a 'y', change the 'y' into and 'i' before adding 'ed'.

hurry --> hurried

Wednesday

Can you draw a phoneme frame like this on in your book?

Remember each box is for a sound so a digraph will go in one box and a trigraph will go in one box.
(Parents see example on next slide)

Wednesday

Examples:

p	l	ay	ed

s	c	u	rr	i	ed

j	u	m	p	ed

Practise reading these tricky words THEN cover them and practise writing them:

old

cold

told

hold

gold

Thursday

What do we need to remember if we are changing these verbs to the past tense?

hop -->

try --> hope -->

Write the past tense versions in your book.

Thursday

Rules for adding 'ed'

Remember:

If a one-syllable verb ends in a vowel followed by a consonant, double the consonant before adding 'ed'

chop --> chopped

When the verb ends in 'e' you only need to add 'd'.

hope --> hoped

If the verb ends in a consonant and a 'y', change the 'y' into and 'i' before adding 'ed'.

hurry --> hurried

Thursday

Ask a grown up to read these sentences out loud to you, slowly. Can you listen carefully and write them in your book?

Dictated sentences...

Yesterday, I phoned my friend and we chatted for hours.

Last week, I tried something new when I jumped on the trampoline.

I was unhappy because I ripped my favourite notebook.

Thursday