Jesus Heals a Blind Man

One day, as Jesus walked along, he saw a man who was begging at the roadside. The man had been born blind.

The disciples thought that the man must have done something bad to be blind. But Jesus said, “This man has not made mistakes. He is blind so that we can see what good works God can do.”

Jesus said, “While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” Then he spat on the dusty ground, mixed it into some mud and gently rubbed the mud on the man’s eyes.

The man's neighbours had seen him begging and said, "Are you the same man who was begging?"
Others said, "No! That's not him. He was blind!" But the man said, "It is me! I was blind but now I can see!"

The man explained, “The man called Jesus came along. He made some mud and rubbed it on my eyes. Then, he told me to wash in the pool of Siloam. When I did, I could see!” The people said, “But where is Jesus now?” The man replied, “I don’t know.”
