

maximum classics- 3

Code cracking: Latin verb endings & Greek letters

Language L.O. To learn how Latin verbs show who is doing the action

Culture L.O. To write using the Greek alphabet

© Charlie Andrew 2016

Latin Golden Rule No. 1

English shows meaning through...

word order

Latin shows meaning through...

word ending

Spot the verbs

he sings

some pupils

terrible

a dog

the policeman

quickly

we can see

I am

you are going

yellow

London

you are walking

they don't like it

happiness

Spiderman

she went away

© Charlie Andrew 2016

Latin Golden Rule No. 2

English shows who is doing the verb through...

pronouns

Latin shows who is doing the verb through...

word ending

Verb endings

o s t mus tis nt

I you he we y'all they

© Charlie Andrew 2016

Endings show who's doing the verb

o	s	t	mus	tis	nt
I	you	he, she, it	we	y'all	they

amare, to love

videre, to see

amo	I love	video	I see amas	you love	vides	you see amat	he, she, it loves	videt	he, she, it sees amamus	we love	videmus	we see amatis	y'all love	videtis	y'all see amant	they love	vident	they see

Plenary

English uses pronouns to show who is doing a verb, but what does Latin use?

Which one of these is a verb: tractor, purple, he talks?

© Charlie Andrew 2016