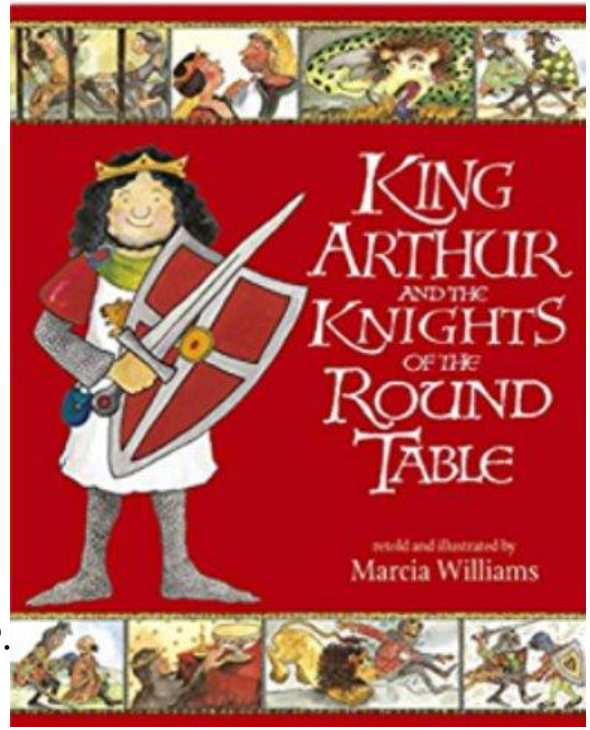
Spring Term 1

Week 2

Monday 11th January 2021

Word of the day - Knight

LO - to use the first three letters of a word to find them in a dictionary.

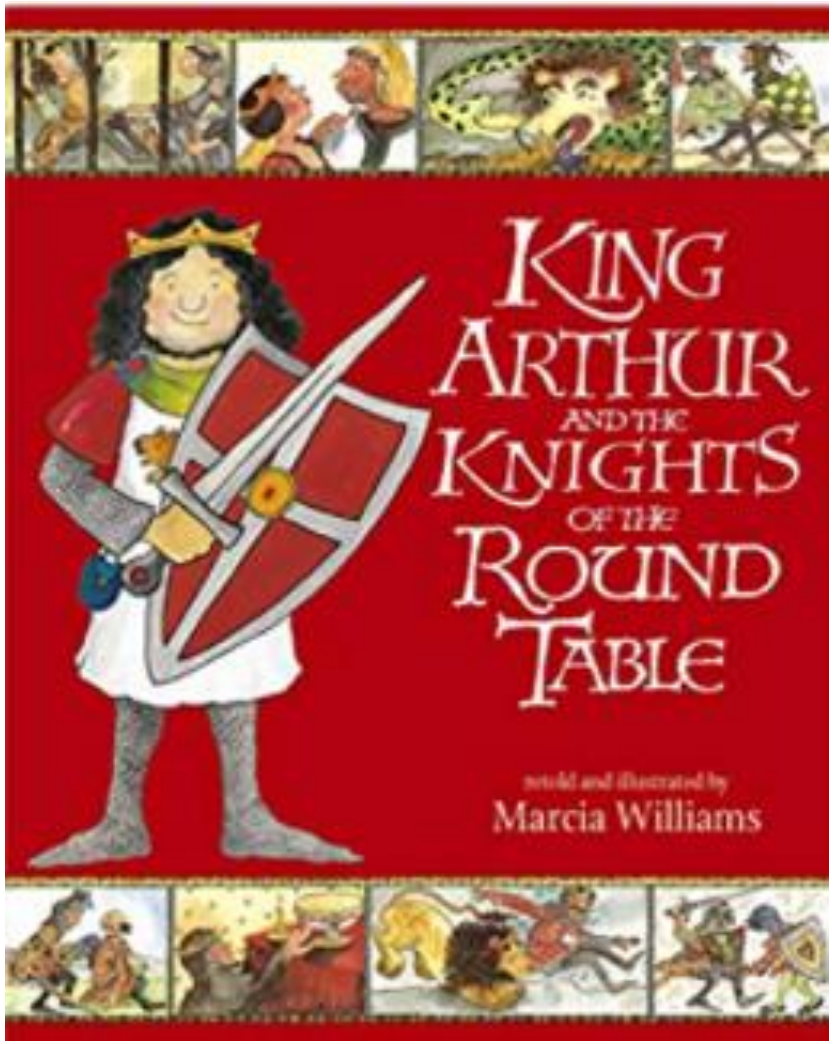


Look at the front cover of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, retold by Marcia Williams. When you the story, will notice that some of the words used in legends will be unfamiliar.

Read the first chapter (on the following slide) of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. Your task is to make a list of definitions to help you when you encounter some of these unfamiliar words. Look up the words from the word list, as well as any words that are unfamiliar to you from the text. Try the words in blue first and then green. On a small piece of paper, write the definition neatly and add a small illustration. Once complete, put each oh the pages into alphabetical order.

Extra Challenge – Look at the Sentences to Improve - use you picture dictionary to improve the vocabulary choices.

King Arthur



KING ARTHUR AND THE KNIGHTS OF THE ROUND TABLE
retold and illustrated by Marcia Williams

KING ARTHUR
THE KING IS DEAD. LONG LIVE ME, THE QUEEN
MERLIN'S MAGIC MAKES THE GAME
Long ago, when forests were still enchanted, a warrior King named Uther Pendragon ruled Britain. When Uther died many imposters, including his stepdaughter Morgan le Fay, tried to claim his throne. So Merlin the Magician decided to use his powers to ensure that Uther's true heir gained the Kingdom.
WHOSO PULLETH OUT THIS SWORD OF THIS STONE IS THE RIGHT WISE KING BORN OF ALL ENGLAND
During the Christmas service, Merlin magicked a great stone with a sword set in it.
After the service all the knights and nobles tried to remove the sword, but none succeeded.
As there were many fine knights who had not attended the service, messengers were sent to summon them.
A tournament was arranged so these knights could try to draw the sword. One such knight was Sir Ector, who came with his sons, Sir Kay and Arthur. It was Sir Kay's first tournament and in his excitement he had forgotten his sword. Arthur offered to return to their lodgings and fetch it, but he found the house locked.

Uther Pendragon

During the Christmas service, Merlin magicked a great stone with a sword set in it.

WHO SO PULLETH OUT THIS SWORD OF THIS STONE IS THE RIGHT WISE KING BORN OF ALL ENGLAND.

Merlin the magician

After the service all the knights and nobles tried to remove the sword, but none succeeded.

As there were many fine knights who had not attended the service, messengers were sent to summon them.

A tournament was arranged so these knights could try to draw the sword. One such knight was Sir Ector, who came with his sons, Sir Kay and Arthur. It was Sir Kay's first tournament and in his excitement he had forgotten his sword. Arthur offered to go back to their lodgings and get the sword, but the house was locked.

The sword in the stone

Remembering he'd seen a sword in a churchyard, Arthur decided to borrow it. Without reading the words on the stone, he withdrew the sword easily.

Sir Kay, knowing the significance of the sword told his father that he had withdrawn the sword himself, and so must be the rightful king.

Surprised, Sir Ector went to the churchyard where Arthur replaced the sword. Neither Sir Ector nor Sir Kay could pull it out again.

Then, in front of a gathering crowd, Arthur tried. The sword slid smoothly out from the stone. The awestruck onlookers fell to their knees.

Then Sir Ector told Arthur that he was really King Uther's son, brought to him sixteen years ago by Merlin to nurture and keep safe.

Although Arthur was only sixteen years old, everyone cheered for him to be king. So in preparation, he was first dubbed a knight.

Then the following week a grand coronation took place and all who stood for justice paid homage to Arthur Pendragon, their rightful king.

Step for depth...

I wonder how you can improve these sentences.

1 - King Uther sat upon the sofa.

2 – Sir Ector pulled the sword from his pocket.

3 – A big fighting competition was arranged.

4 – King Arthur became a noble fighting person.

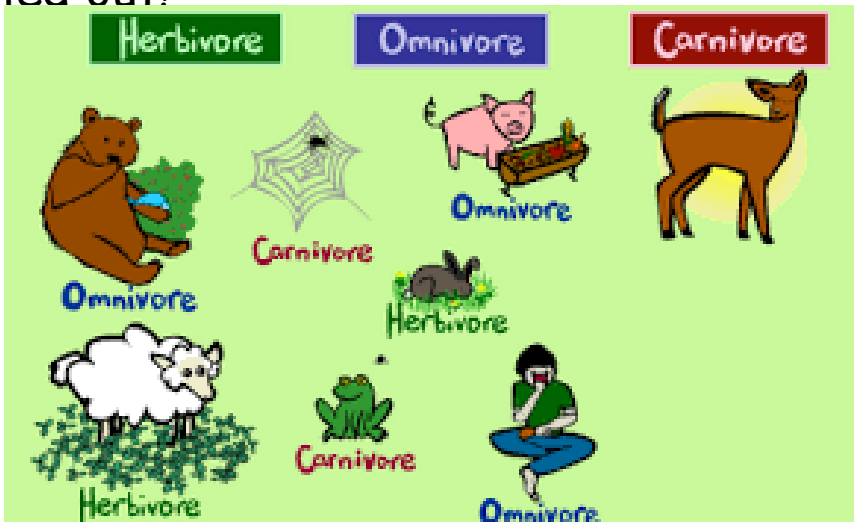
What can you remember about animal diets from KS1?
How could we group birds/fish? How can we see if they are all carnivores/omnivores etc.?
What have you found out about animal diets? How are they the same/different?
Why do you think animals need different diets?
What do you think might happen if insects died out?

Step for depth – why don't plants eat food?



Thursday 14th January 2021

Word of the Day – conquer

LO – to link sentences of a paragraph together.

Today we will be thinking how the sentences will fit together. Read your sentences from yesterday, in the right order. Does the new paragraph hang together and make sense? Have you used adverbs and conjunctions for time and place? Do the sentences flow? Is there too much repetition of particular words or do we need to add an extra sentence or combine two that are quite similar? You can continue to change it and adjust it until you are happy that it makes sense. When you are happy with it, read it aloud, thinking about how it could be performed in role as a story-teller. You need to think about how to gain and maintain listeners' attention. Read aloud your writing using expression and gesture to bring the story to life. As a story-teller, you want to entrance the audience and to make the story sound exciting and gripping.
