Today we are going to learn about a special type of adjective.

What is an adjective?

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

E.g.

The cute, happy puppy ran through the cold mud.

Today we are learning about a superlative adjective.
This is an adjective that describes words that have the most or least quality. They are used when comparing three of more things. Superlatives inclue the suffix 'est'.

The girl was taller than the boy but the gorilla was the tallest.

Here are some superlative adjectives. Can you make up and write a sentence containing each one?

warmest

quickest

prettiest

cutest

Wednesday

Practise reading these tricky words:

Rules for adding suffix 'est'.

Sometimes the original word stays the same and you just add 'est'.

Can you finish the last one?

tall → tallest

small → smallest

thick → thickest

plain →

Rules for adding suffix 'est'.

If the original word ends in 'y' we have to replace the 'y' with an 'i' and then add 'est'.

Can you finish the last one?

e.g.
