LO - to link the story of Icarus to a situation where you or a friend of yours has shown off.

Write a recount of what happened.

Icarus got too big-headed and forgot all about the warnings his father had given him.

Can you think of a time when you have shown off about something you can do?

Did something happen to you as a result of showing off.

Or maybe you can think of someone else you know who has shown off about something.

Write about what happened.
