English - Brackets

Examples

Jim (a pro wrestler) couldn’t work out how he had managed to get caught in a headlock.

The aliens (from Wester Mars) stunned the humans without any mercy.

Brackets Task 1

Remove the brackets from these sentences. To make this easier you should make two sentences.

Look at this example.

- The kittens (dashing around the garden as usual) were fighting when Carl came home.
- The kittens were fighting when Carl came home. They were dashing round the garden as usual.

a. The trainers (red and blue Nike Air) were very expensive.

b. The cars (Ferraris with mirror windows) looked as if they were carrying famous people.

c. The shoes (made of patent leather) were all scuffed and dirty.

d. Sydney Opera House (built at the entrance to Sydney harbour) is famous for its summer opera season.

e. The children (who were very excited) couldn't wait to meet the Queen.

f. The fire engine (which had sirens blaring and lights flashing) moved swiftly between the rush hour traffic.

Brackets Task 1

Copy these sentences into your books. You need to put in the missing brackets, so read them carefully first.

a. The diagram shown on the previous page is of a car engine.
b. Police Officers sometimes called ‘bobbies’ or ‘peelers’ get their nicknames from Sir Robert Peel.
c. The Eiffel Tower found in Paris, France is made entirely of iron.
d. The Gunners based in London, England is the nickname of the famous football team Arsenal.
e. The teacher who was new to the school took the class to the seaside.

The Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31)

19 “There was once a rich man who dressed in the most expensive clothes and lived in great luxury every day. 20 There was also a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who used to be brought to the rich man's door, 21 hoping to eat the bits of food that fell from the rich man's table.
Even the dogs would come and lick his sores. 22 The poor man died and was carried by the angels to sit beside Abraham at the feast in heaven. The rich man died and was buried, 23 and in Hades,[a] where he was in great pain, he looked up and saw Abraham, far away, with Lazarus at his side. 24 So he called out, ‘Father Abraham! Take pity on me, and send Lazarus to dip his finger in some water and cool off my tongue, because I am in great pain in this fire!’ 25 But Abraham said, ‘Remember, my son, that in your lifetime you were given all the good things, while Lazarus got all the bad things. But now he is enjoying himself here, while you are in pain. 26 Besides all that, there is a deep pit lying between us, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot do so, nor can anyone cross over to us from where you are.’ 27 The rich man said, ‘Then I beg you, father Abraham, send Lazarus to my father's house, 28 where I have five brothers. Let him go and warn them so that they, at least, will not come to this place of pain.’ 29 Abraham said, ‘Your brothers have Moses and the prophets to warn them; your brothers should listen to what they say.’ 30 The rich man answered, ‘That is not enough, father Abraham! But if someone were to rise from death and go to them, then they would turn from their sins.’ 31 But Abraham said, ‘If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone were to rise from death.’”

Task 1

Task 2

Deeping thinking question

Is it wrong to be rich?
Is it wrong to be poor?

The Final Judgement – The Sheep and Goats (Matthew 25:31-45)

31 “When the Son of Man comes as King and all the angels with him, he will sit on his royal throne, 32 and the people of all the nations will be gathered before him. Then he will divide them into two groups, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will put the righteous people at his right and the others at his left. 34 Then the King will say to the people on his right, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father! Come and possess the kingdom which has been prepared for you ever since the creation of the world. 35 I was hungry and you fed me, thirsty and you gave me a drink; I was a stranger and you received me in your homes, 36 naked and you clothed me; I was sick and you took care of me, in prison and you visited me.’ 37 The righteous will then answer him, ‘When, Lord, did we ever see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? 38 When did we ever see you a stranger and welcome you in our homes, or naked and clothe you? 39 When did we ever see you sick or in prison, and visit you?’ 40 The King will reply, ‘I tell you, whenever you did this for one of the least important of these followers of mine, you did it for me!’

41 “Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Away from me, you that are under God's curse! Away to the eternal fire which has been prepared for the Devil and his angels! 42 I was hungry but you would not feed me, thirsty but you would not give me a drink; 43 I was a stranger but you would not welcome me in your homes, naked but you would not clothe me; I was sick and in prison but you would not take care of me.’ 44 Then they will answer him, ‘When, Lord, did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and we would not help you?’ 45 The King will reply, ‘I tell you, whenever you refused to help one of these least important ones, you refused to help me.’
