Monday - Brackets Answers

Part 1

a. The trainers (red and blue Nike Air) were very expensive.

The trainers were very expensive. They were red and blue Nike Air.

b. The cars (Ferraris with mirror windows) looked as if they were carrying famous people.

The cars looked as if they were carrying famous people. They were Ferraris with all mirrored windows.

c. The shoes (made of patent leather) were all scuffed and dirty.

The shoes were all scuffed and dirty. They were made of patent leather.

d. Sydney Opera House (built at the entrance to Sydney Harbour) is famous for its summer opera season.

Sydney Opera House is famous for its summer opera season. It was built at the entrance to Sydney Harbour.

e. The children (who were very excited) couldn't wait to meet the Queen.

The children couldn't wait to meet the Queen. They were very excited.

f. The fire engine (which had sirens blaring and lights flashing) moved swiftly between the rush hour traffic.

The fire engine moved swiftly between the rush hour traffic. It had its sirens blaring and its lights flashing.

Part 2

a. The diagram (shown on the previous page) is of a car engine.

b. Police Officers (sometimes called 'bobbies' or 'peelers') get their nicknames from Sir Robert Peel.

c. The Eiffel Tower (found in Paris, France) is made entirely of iron.

d. The Gunners (based in London, England) is the nickname of the famous football team Arsenal.

e. The teacher (who was new to the school) took the class to the seaside.